Adult Learning Extravaganza

Friday 11 January 2008 10.00am – 3.00pm
City Library and Arts Centre,
Fawcett Street,
Sunderland

On Friday 11th January, between 10.00am – 3.00pm, City Library and Arts Centre is hosting the 'Adult Learning Extravaganza'.

More than 20 adult learning providers, projects and advice agencies will be on-hand to offer information about courses, enrolment sessions and free taster activities. An array of stalls will be situated throughout the library building for you to browse at your leisure.

If you want to know more about a course before signing up, you can try taster activities or see examples of work that have been produced in the following areas, including:

- Cake decorating
- Childcare
- Computer maintenance
- Construction awareness
- Driving theory tests
- First aid
- Jewellery-making
- Literacy
- Numeracy
- Scrapbooking
- Textiles

Find out about the full range of courses on offer by talking to providers at the event. The aim of the day is to provide a one-stop-shop for adults who may be interested in taking up courses in the New Year.

While you're here, why not join the library, borrow an item and get a free bag for life? No identification is required.

Light refreshments available.
